THE NEW YORK RAILROAD ENTHUSIASTS	Depot and Tower Tour
Electric Railroaders' Association, Inc.

Friday June 3 to Saturday June 4

Join your fellow NYRRE and associated ERA group for an unusual trip. We'll visit transit and interlocking tower museums. The trip begins Friday night to be fully refreshed the next day. Our private coach leaves from the New York Times building, 8th Avenue at 41st Street. Please arrive at 7:45 PM. Our hotel in Allentown offers a continental breakfast.

The Bus Museum opens its annex once a year to display the buses not on exhibition. (You ride a shuttle bus from the museum.) Afterwards, we travel west to Harrisburg and visit the former Harris Tower, which controlled the main line around Harrisburg Station. The tower is a few blocks from the station and Strawberry Mall which has a food court. Time and parking permitting, we will drive along Front Street for the opportunity of shooting the former Pennsylvania Railroad's Rockville Bridge, the longest stone arched railroad bridge in the world.
