

207th Street Shop

Saturday, August 5th, 2017

Join the ERA at NYC Transit's 207th Street Shop

The ERA is pleased to announce a free visit to the NYC Transit 207th street Yard and Heavy Maintenance Shop in Inwood. This will be a guided visit and our first tour of the location since 2009. Representatives from NYC Transit will be our hosts to point out all of the interesting features of the shop. You will see how the B-division subway car fleet is kept in good repair from the wheels up. It is also where museum fleet restorations occur.

All attendees will meet at the main entrance to the complex, which is located at 3961 10th Avenue, on the east side of 10th Avenue between West 211th and West 212th Streets no later than 11:00 a.m. The entrance can be reached by taking the #1 or A train to 207th Street and then walking north to the shop entrance. It is expected that the visit and tour will last approximately 1.5 hours. Please wear sturdy shoes – sneakers and open shoes will not be allowed in this active work environment.

Due to NYC Transit security requirements, the deadline for sending in your complete package is June 30th. We look forward to seeing you there!

Ticket Price: Free!

Please book your tickets ASAP! This tour will fill up fast and we are limited to 40 participants. Reservations will be provided first-come, first-served. For further information, please check erausa.org or contact Robert Colorafi at trips@erausa.org or 718-304-6778. Please note that this is an active facility and the tour may be canceled or postponed for any reason. Please plan accordingly.
