

LONG ISLAND RAIL ROAD

ALL PARLOR CAR

THE CANNONBALL

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1971

The pleasure of a first class train ride, a relaxing meal and the crisp salt air will be yours on a 200 mile outing along Long Island's south shore! From the activity of New York City to the quiet beauty of Nassau County our special train will wind its way on a pleasant fall day. This will be a rare opportunity to ride one of the most unusual first class trains ever operated.

OPEN PLATFORM

OBSERVATION CAR "JAMAICA"

This very special car will bring up the rear of our special train. This car, which was built in the early years of this century has served the Nevada Northland and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroads before finding a home on the Long Island. Operated as the Number 97 on both of the earlier roads it carried the name "Setauket" on the Long Island for many years. This car will be open to all ticket holders!

Our train will be a mixed grab bag of unusual and exotic equipment. Each car will be different both inside and out. Each car will be from a different American railroad - all representative of the golden age of rail passenger travel. The train consist will be:

- "Amagansett" ex- Baltimore & Ohio "Nappanee" - five compartment observation parlor-lounge.
- "Apagogne" ex- Florida East Coast "Lake Okeechobee" - full parlor-lounge closed observation car.
- "Asharoken" ex- Erie Lackawanna "Phoebe Snow" - tavern-parlor-lounge closed observation
- "Onteora" ex- Lehigh Valley "Tuscarora Club" full parlor chair lounge.

In addition to the Montauk Branch our special train will also visit the freight only line between Long Island City and Jamaica and the memorable Bushwick Branch which has not had passenger service in seventy years! To round out this truly different excursion the train will also visit the Belmont Park spur (first class to the raceway!) and the Holban Yard complex.

Arrangements have been made with Herb McCarthy's Bowden Square Restaurant for an all inclusive meal of appetizer; soup; a choice of chopped sirloin, flounder or turkey; dessert and beverage. The price of $ 4.75 includes gratuity and tax. Naturally you may make your own food arrangements during our dinner stop in scenic and beautiful Southampton.

TRAIN WILL LEAVE WOODSIDE AT 8:40 AM. Connections from New York and Jamaica as follows: 8:24AM Pennsylvania Station N.Y.
